Southwestern Minnesota Adult Mental Health Consortium (SMAMHC)

Our Mission:

Our mission is to develop, participate and strengthen a continuum of care to meet the diverse needs of individuals in our communities to support mental health recovery.

Who we are:

SMAMHC is an Adult Mental Health Initiative in Minnesota and operates as a Joint Power entity serving the 18 counties of Big Stone, Chippewa, Cottonwood, Jackson, Kandiyohi, Lac qui Parle, Lincoln, Lyon, McLeod, Meeker, Murray, Nobles, Pipestone, Redwood, Renville, Rock, Swift and Yellow Medicine. We are committed to fostering strong partnerships with counties and providers to promote mental health, hope, empowerment, and overall wellness. Through collaboration, SMAMHC supports the development, expansion, and enhancement of services for individuals facing mental health challenges, using AMHI funding to strengthen care across our communities.
